Menomonee Falls Freemasons Support Menomonee Falls Public Library Capital Campaign with $2,500 Donation

Lincoln Lodge #183 of the Wisconsin Freemasons has generously donated $2,500 to support the Menomonee Falls Public Library's 2026 Library Building Improvement Capital Campaign, helping advance plans to renovate and modernize the Library's first floor.

The Library's capital campaign seeks to raise $500,000 for improvements that will create a brighter, more welcoming, accessible, and secure environment for the community. Planned upgrades include new carpeting and paint, updated furnishings and signage, improved ADA accessibility, energy-efficient LED lighting, and enhancements to community spaces such as the Main Lobby, Reading Nook, Board Room, and Print & Copy Center. Renovations are scheduled to begin in November 2026. The Library has already raised over $90,000 towards the goal.

"The Freemasons are the backbone of Menomonee Falls, supporting community organizations like the Library to improve Menomonee Falls for everyone," said Jacqueline Rammer, Library Director of the Menomonee Falls Public Library. "Community partnerships like this allow our Library to grow with the population, providing excellent service to all residents. Thank you to Lincoln Lodge #183 for their incredibly generous donation."

The Menomonee Falls Public Library serves thousands of residents each year through collections, technology access, educational programming, makerspace opportunities, and community gathering spaces. The first-floor renovation project is part of a broader multi-year effort to modernize the Library and better meet evolving community needs.

Lincoln Lodge #183 of the Wisconsin Freemasons was chartered in 1872 by the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin. Freemasonry is the oldest fraternal organization in the world, with members working towards bettering their community through charitable initiatives, brotherhood, and self-improvement. Freemasons Michael Nooyen and Daniel Stujenske attest, "Faith, Hope and Charity are the virtues of Freemasonry and we at Lincoln Lodge practice these every day by helping others when we are able."
