Local Businesses Invest in the Future of Menomonee Falls Public Library

Menomonee Falls Public Library is celebrating the generosity of four local businesses that have stepped forward to support the Library's Building Improvement Capital Campaign. Roskopf's Towing has donated $500, Chiropractic Company has donated $250, Mathnasium of Menomonee Falls has donated $250, and Bank Five Nine-Menomonee Falls has donated $150—for a combined $1,150 investment in the future of the Library and the Menomonee Falls community.

The Library's capital campaign is working to raise $500,000 to renovate and modernize the first floor, creating a brighter, more welcoming, accessible, and secure space for everyone who uses the Library. Planned improvements include new carpeting and paint, updated furnishings and signage, improved ADA accessibility, energy-efficient LED lighting, and enhancements to community spaces including the Main Lobby, Reading Nook, Board Room, and Print & Copy Center. Renovations are scheduled to begin in November 2026.

Thanks to the incredible generosity of local businesses, organizations, families, and community members, the Library has already raised more than $100,000 toward its $500,000 goal.

"Seeing local businesses come together to support the Library is incredibly meaningful," said Jacqueline Rammer, Library Director of the Menomonee Falls Public Library. "Roskopf's Towing, Chiropractic Company, Mathnasium, and Bank Five Nine are not just businesses in our community—they are our community. Their generosity shows a shared belief in the importance of having a vibrant, welcoming public library where people can learn, discover, and spend time together."

The Library's first-floor renovation is one part of a larger, multi-year effort to transform the building and ensure it continues to serve the community for years to come. From families attending storytimes and students studying to residents using technology, attending programs, meeting with friends, or simply finding a quiet place to read, the Library welcomes thousands of community members each year.

"Every donation to this campaign tells us that the Library matters to the people who live, work, and invest in Menomonee Falls," Rammer said. "We are incredibly grateful to the businesses and individuals who have chosen to be part of this effort. Together, these community investments are helping us build a Library that will serve Menomonee Falls for generations to come."

The Menomonee Falls Public Library extends its sincere thanks to Roskopf's Towing, Chiropractic Company, Mathnasium, and Bank Five Nine for their generous contributions and commitment to the community. Their support is helping turn plans for a revitalized first floor into a reality.

Businesses, organizations, and community members interested in joining this community effort can learn more about the campaign or make a donation through the Library's campaign page at Menomonee Falls Public Library Capital Campaign.
